Description:

Camp Courage 2022 is supposed to be a two-weekend camp taking place in May and June 2022 in the west part of Slovakia (close to capital). Between the main objectives of this project belong:

- empowering 40 young students to become active citizens in their community and improving their English language communication skills (including writing, verbal and presentation skills);
- advance understanding of the US-Slovak shared democratic values among participants;
- developing participants' 21st century skills, such as critical thinking, leadership, and cross-cultural communication skills;
